Forecast for Sunday 14 Nov 2021

Weather: A cloudy day. Mostly dry morning with just the odd patch of light rain in the west. Then some heavier rain will reach Skye by the end of the morning extending further east in the afternoon though always heavier in the west.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: 90%, in early hours falling 50% in morning and 10% in the afternoon and evening in the west, and 30% in the east.

Visibility: Mainly good at first away from cloud then becoming moderate occasionally poor as rain turns heavier and more persistent, also as the cloud bases gradually lower to 400-700m, the lower bases nearer the west coast, and 700-900m in sheltered east.
